

overview of the festival of india

We invite you to participate in the 44th Annual Festival of India, a celebration of spiritual experiences of ancient South Asian culture, is coming to Toronto from July 16th- 17th, 2016. Over 35,000 people participate every year in this two-day festival which aims to both inform and entertain utilizing yoga, spirituality, music, dance and the arts. Known as the largest of its kind in North America, Toronto's Festival of India kicks off with a colourful parade down Yonge St. with three 40-foot tall floats which are hand-pulled by thousands of participants amidst drumming, chanting and dancing. The main festival then takes place, for the remainder of the weekend, on beautiful Centre Island where attractions include: a free vegetarian feast, a non-stop arts & culture showcase, a one-day yoga festival — "Yoga Meltdown", South Asian Bazaar (Marketplace), spiritual exhibits, drama and much more!

about the south asian bazaar

Our South Asian Bazaar continues to be one of the most popular areas of our festival for the attending public and provides an excellent opportunity for you to sell your products and promote you or your organization. The bazaar typically features both vendors and goods from all over the world and is located in one of the most high-traffic areas of the festival site. For more information regarding the nature of the goods and services that meet festival guidelines, please see the contract enclosed at the end of this package.

benefits of being a vendor

As mentioned above, the Festival of India draws over 35,000 people every year. The festival has seen consistent growth in both attendance and participation over the last several years.

Vendors can certainly benefit from the high levels of exposure for their products and/or services at this vibrant and colourful outdoor event. Our South Asian Bazaar is one of the key attractions of the festival and is growing every year!

Yonge-Dundas Square

The Festival of India is featuring a pre-festival at Yonge-Dundas Square, to give the City of Toronto a preview of things to come. This year's pre-festival will take place on Sunday, June 26th, 2016. Please contact us for additional details about vendor opportunities at this event (deadline June 1st).

Arts and exhibits greet the thousands of attendees at the Festival of India.

A busy vendor receiving the public.

The vendor area is always a hub of activity!

how to book a vendor space

To reserve vendor space, the vendor contract must be completed and the vendor fee paid in full no later than June 15, 2016 (June 1, 2016 if also booking Yonge-Dundas Square). The vendor fee, based on the chosen vendor package, must be paid by credit card, certified cheque, bank draft, money order, or email money transfer (in Canadian funds), payable to ISKCON Toronto, and should indicate "Festival of India 2016 Vendor Fee" in the memorandum area. Vendor booths will be assigned on a first come first served basis, so Vendors are encouraged to act quickly as space is limited. Please contact us for our mailing address.

hours of operation

The bazaar is open to the public from 12pm-8pm on Saturday, July 16th, and from 12pm-5pm on Sunday, July 17th. Vendors are required to arrive at the festival site for setup before 11am.

transportation

Vendors are responsible to transport their paraphernalia to and from Centre Island and the festival site. There are few methods vendors can use to transport their items:

Ferry Service: The City of Toronto provides ferry service to Centre Island; the ferry docks are located at the foot of Bay Street on the central Toronto waterfront. They also offer rental of carts (wheelbarrows). For more Information on schedules and fares please contact Toronto Island Ferry Information at 416-392-8193.

Water Taxi Service: There are several private companies that offer private Water Taxi service. This is a convenient option to transport your items to the island. Contact information for the water taxi companies will be provided upon request.
